Formation Of National Government Would Cause Disunity, Lapointe Says

By FRANK FLAHERTY

OTTAWA, Feb. 25.—(CP)—Formation of a national government would divide Canada rather than unite it, Justice Minister Lapointe told the House of Commons last night. The veteran cabinet minister, who reminded the house he had just completed 37 years in parliament, delivered what was generally interpreted as the government's answer to renewed suggestions for the formation of an all-party ministry.

No Compromise Or Parley Is Possible Premier Tells Japs

Offer Was Contained In Recent Communication To Anthony Eden From Japanese Foreign Minister

LONDON, Feb. 25.—(AP)—Prime Minister Churchill has told Japan that Britain rejects any mediation in her war with Germany, the government announced today.

The announcement was made in the House of Commons by R. A. Butler, under-secretary for foreign affairs.

"In a recent communication to the foreign secretary, Anthony Eden, the Japanese minister for foreign affairs (Yosuke Matsuoka), after referring generally to the European war, observed that Japan was fully prepared to act as mediator or to take whatever action was calculated to restore peace and normal conditions not only in greater East Asia but anywhere in the world," Mr. Butler told the house.

"The Japanese minister for foreign affairs in subsequent public statements made, he said, after consulting German officials, indicated that his words were not to be regarded as an offer of mediation in the European war."

"In any case the Japanese minister for foreign affairs has been informed by the Prime Minister that in a case of the kind for which we are fighting there can be no way concerned with territory, trade or material gain, but affecting the whole future of humanity—there can be no question of 'compromise' or 'parley'."

The chamber closed with cheers when Mr. Butler finished. His statement was a reply to a demand by Rhys Davies, Labor, for "the precise terms of the offer made by gun control, on which Munitions Minister Howe allowed a compromise of misrepresentation was carried on, and centralization of power in Ottawa at the expense of the provinces, against which John Bracken, New Democratic leader, protested.

Lapointe said the house that France fell because the people were divided by enemy propaganda, and warned against tendencies to divide the Canadian people.

"I believe, indeed I hope, that the great struggle through which we are passing, the sacrifice we are all making, may have the effect of welding us into an enduring and stable nation," he said.

"We should never be more tolerant of one another as a result of their sacrifices and we should try to restrain those who have been and now are expressing those views which may cause friction and may be resented by people in other sections of the country."

Mr. Lapointe was much applauded, often by opposition members, particularly when he praised England and pledged Canada never to desert the empire.

NEW LEGATIONS

Late last evening the house adopted the motion to go into committee on the bill to create legations in London and Ottawa.

Mr. King told the house: "That Chile and some other South American countries have pressed for exchange of representatives with Canada but have not been able to do so because of the war."

Mr. Lapointe said Canada had accepted the necessity of this war because she could not do otherwise.

Then why try to divide Canada by pretending to unite it?

The minister said the province of Quebec was definitely opposed to any form of government which would bring back memories which were most painful.

"I speak frankly. I do not think I could sit in such a government and represent my province and I believe, and others believe, that if I can't do it no other man can either."

Anything calculated to destroy the unity of the country in war could be called an act of sabotage, said Mr. Lapointe.

FREELY ELECTED

I beseech the promoters of this scheme, he said, to know they are anxious that Canada make its best war effort and be well enough armed.

I implore them not to undermine the confidence of the people in their duty and freely elected leaders."

Some advocates of national government cited the example of other parts of the empire, Mr. Lapointe said. Only Great Britain and New Zealand have granted independence.

Both cases the government in power was elected before the war. In Northern Ireland, said Mr. Lapointe, Craigavon had refused to form a union government.

Newspapers put forward the views of their editors and proprietors and not the views of the people. They do not try to make it appear that those views were public opinion. The recent elections in the United States showed it was a mistake to accept the views of newspapers as public opinion.

Mr. Lapointe said the Montreal Gazette at the time of the last federal election was advocating national government. He said it was "day" and questioned whether it represented the public opinion even in Quebec.

NAZI INJURED IN FRACAS IS DYING, STATED

U.S. Legation Officials In Sofia Endeavor To Trace Reporter

SOBIA, Feb. 25.—(AP)—Officials of the United States legation said Monday night they were trying to track down a reporter who had been injured in a fracas in Sofia, Bulgaria.

A check of hotels and hospitals failed to disclose any trace of the man.

He and Karl were engaged in an altercation at a restaurant near the legation when the man was injured.

A spokesman for the German legation said it had been established that the man was not a member of the legation staff or a German official.

Karl himself said he had received a report claiming that the man was dying of a skull fracture. He said the best information he had been able to obtain was that the man was a member of the German general staff.

Karl said that the German legation had declined to disclose the man's name and "maintaining silence about the case."

The D.N.B., the German news and propaganda agency, issued a version of the story after the German legation had been notified of the case.

Looking them Over

JACK KELLY

TODAY happens that the effects of the war on European racing stables crashes into the news in a couple of stories that make mighty interesting reading and open up some interesting conjectures.

English and French thoroughbreds, upwards of 300 of them, have been imported by U.S. interests since the war started and a number of them are now being prepared for major races.

However there is a nice problem developing among the horses that didn't get out of France in time. Yesterday a story came through from Vichy, France, announcing that the thoroughbreds from the confiscated stables of Maurice de Rothschild, famous French sportsman, had been sold at auction. Rothschild was deprived of his French citizenship and all his property on French soil last summer when the Vichy government ruled he had left the country without valid travels.

If you know the history of the house of Rothschild, you'll get a chuckle out of Vichy ruling that the German influx was not a valid reason for de-Rothschild to take it on the lam.

As might be expected, the Rothschild horses sold for pin money. Legendarily, one of the best, brought only $2,500, while the great Sandringham went for $1,900. A year or so before the war started, a group of English sportsmen offered something like $165,000 for Sandringham and Rothschild refused to sell.

Now here is where a fine problem in international law and the official attitude of the British comes in. So far as British racing is concerned, a horse is not a thoroughbred unless he is registered in the General Stud Book—and what almost sacred standard is entirely controlled by about Britain.

Legislature and Sandringham are listed in this book, of course, as owned by Rothschild. Will the Stud Book officials take the view that these two horses were stolen from Rothschild by the German-controlled Vichy government and refuse to list them as owned by the parties who bought them yesterday for a song? Will British racing officials take the attitude that the horses have been stolen?

Furthermore, what will the Stud Book do about listing the thoroughbreds that Germans stole outright in occupied France?

Stud Book Is Silent Circle

SOCIETY blue book and Newport invitation lists are not as exclusive as this General Stud Book of English thoroughbreds. If a family has enough money, can absorb such quietly and truthfully for two or three generations they can crash a society blue book, but a horse can beat every million record, win a million dollars in the generation of race winners and still not get his name mentioned in the General Stud Book. So far as that mighty tome is concerned, that horse is not a thoroughbred and nothing can ever make him one.

According to the Stud Book, no horse is a thoroughbred unless he is a descendant of one of the stallions, the Barley Arabians, the Beyer Turk or the Godolphin Barb, and one of 30 mares of pure Eastern origin.

That select ancestry was set up 150 years ago by James Weatherly who published the first General Stud Book. The Weatherly family has been associated with this book ever since. The last edition of this catalogue of bloodstock was published in 1936 and lists the names of 1,978 stallions, 1,988 fillies and 7,529 mares.

Fiction-like romance hangs around these three original stallions, each of which were pure Arabians. The Beyer Turk was imported from the city of Constantinople by a man named Beyer who was a friend of the Sultan. The Godolphin Barb was discovered pulling a watercart in the streets of Paris in 1724 after a French upheaval by an Englishman. The latter recognized the animal's breeding line, bought him and presented him to the Earl of Godolphin. The Darley Arabian was bought in Aleppo by a Yorkshire breeder named Darley.

Many horses accepted as thoroughbreds in the United States can not qualify for the General Stud Book and this has produced some odd results. However with the huge influx of race thoroughbreds in the U.S. as a result of the war, Americans will soon be able to obtain the coveted blue book listing. Previously British breeders were reluctant to sell top flight thoroughbreds to Americans at any price.

City Council Authorizes $3,000 Bid For Roche Lease

EDMONTON's city council decided Monday to authorize the city commissioners to offer Henry J. Roche, Edmonton business man, $3,000 for his interest in the Renfrew baseball park lease.

Aldermen rejected by a vote of eight to two an offer made by Mr. Roche late last week to the city commissioners to sell his interest in the park lease at $2,500. The motion is offer $3,000 was carried by a vote of seven to two.

Alderman D. K. Keefe, moving that Mr. Roche be paid $3,000 for his lease, reviewed the history of the ball park and told council that when Mr. Roche was paid $2,500 for the lease, Mr. Roche had put up money to make the Renfrew park one of the best baseball parks in western Canada.

GOOD BARGAIN He said that $10,000 had been expended in improvements by Mr. Roche and that the city was getting a good bargain if it took over the park for the unexpired portion of the lease.

Alderman C. E. Garneau also considered that the city would get a bargain in purchasing the lease for $3,000.

Alderman C. E. Keefe, M.M., was not convinced with the amount of cash that had been put into the park by Mr. Roche. He was vitally concerned, he said, that the city should own and control the park.

Edmonton City Park Board members were asked to know the value of the improvements made by Mr. Roche, whether these improvements were worth the $3,000.

Official Figures Confirm Keefe's Scoring Record

Cam Burke Of Stampede Finishes in Second Place

Cam Burke of Stampede finishing in second place.

CALGARY, Feb. 25.—(CP)—Cam Burke, speedy Stampeder winger, came roaring down the home stretch to gather in 13 points and capture second place in the Alberta Senior Hockey League scoring averages with 51, according to final official statistics released Monday by President F. J. Cameron.

Burke put on his spectacular drive when most of the other "big guns" were being muffled. Eddie O'Keefe, who shattered all existing records in the league less than two weeks ago with 61 points, only managed to add an assist to his total.

Doug Cairns, smart Turner Valley center, added three points to his list to share second place with Kilela, Lethbridge ace who was injured in a practice three weeks ago and has not played since. They each have 46 points.

Ken Stewart, playing coach of the Maple Leafs, is tied with Pete Atkinson, Turner Valley star, with 44 points.

CRADDOCK "BAD MAN" Syd Craddock, Turner Valley forward, was the "bad boy" of the league, spending 37 minutes in the penalty box. Meyer Field, his team mate finished in second place with 41 points.

Most of the league sharpshooters are played for the playoffs, which open in Calgary Wednesday night, when Stampede plays host to the Edmonton Flyers. Burke's scoring spurge was cheered news to Calgary enthusiasts who have two alternative in the addition with injuries.

Chuck Milman, breaking defenseman, is nursing a broken hand, while Tony Desmarais, key man of the second string, is in hospital with an injured back.

Lethbridge lost Mel Lundie the other night when he broke his shoulder, but Leafs will likely have a shot at him when he returns. Stewart will form the chief scoring.

Edmonton has been fortunate as far as injuries are concerned, and will have O'Keefe, Stewart, Newcombe and Skinner to carry most of the load in the playoffs.

FINAL FIGURES Following are the final official statistics for the 1940-41 season:

LEFISTS INTERRED

It was not until the 1930s that the leftists were interred. In 1937, the Soviet government launched a campaign to purge the country of "enemies of the state." This campaign targeted a wide range of people, including political opponents, intellectuals, and even members of the Communist Party. Many of these people were arrested and sent to labor camps, where they were often subjected to harsh conditions and forced labor. The campaign was part of a broader effort to consolidate power and eliminate any potential threats to the Soviet regime.

INJUSTICE IS DONE RIDINGS MEMBER SAYS

Peace River M.L.A. Complain of Last Redistribution of Seats

Last redistribution of legislative seats brought about an injustice to the size of constituency and population were not always properly taken into account, it was charged by F. J. Martin, Ed. Peace River while speaking in the debate on the Speech from the Throne.

He pointed out that official figures showed that "when one excludes the strictly urban constituencies on which a fairly different basis of representation was arranged, we find that the number of voters on the last election in the following districts: Rocky-High River, 5,661; Deer 7,138; Peace River 7,342 and Grosvent 7,585.

Mr. Martin then charged that "the picture before us in this country that the constituency with the largest area in the province holds this position when measured by the number of voters and the voters list at the same time has approximately 56 per cent of the population of the province, 4,941; Cypress 5,132 and Taber 5,806 and Cardston 4,257.

"WITCH HUNT"
Charges were laid by Mr. Martin that after the last election, the government had carried out a "witch hunt" in the north to find out who had and had not been in the government. Women found to have voted the wrong way were denounced. He charged that the government of the day had carried out a "witch hunt" in the north to find out who had and had not been in the government. Women found to have voted the wrong way were denounced.

He urged that the Sole Relief Act passed last year be amended so that any house member on an active service could continue to receive his indemnity for the duration of the war and as long as active service prevented him from taking his seat.

Mr. Martin took exception to the action of the provincial government in abolishing the policy of free homesteads and subsidizing them for the leasing of land. He declared that "at no time have I been able to obtain the reasons for the government that induced them to make such changes. I have examined the subsidized lease scheme and can find nothing in it that would be attractive to bona fide settlers and homesteaders.

TIME TO PLAN
He urged a constructive policy to prepare for the time when the young men now serving in His Majesty's forces returned and desired to settle.

"Now is the time to be building plans to take care of the returning soldier and that must also be at the end of the war and that is the government that when that time comes, the changes are going to be needed, the danger that time demands is to make the changes will be and problems, promises unkept, catchwords and empty sounding phrases will not solve the problem."

He attacked the provincial stand on the Dominion-Provincial conference on Simons report recommendations and holding "a hearing" that the Premier and his delegates "declined to enter into discussions as the matter in which the outstanding problems could be solved."

He had one slight exchange with the Premier regarding northern development. Mr. Martin claimed that he had been the reason for the Premier cancelling three speaking engagements in the north.

STORE-FRONT IS DAMAGED IN COLLISION

Store-front of Bookers confectionery, 118 avenue and 83 street, was driven back nine inches when a truck crashed into the building following a collision between two vehicles Monday afternoon, according to a police report Tuesday.

According to the report, a truck driven on 118 avenue on Ted Grosvenor, 1200 83 street, collided with a car going south on 86 street, operated by Herb Rowan, 118 86 street.

Police state that the truck skidded 32 feet all told and the other car a distance of 24 feet. No one was injured.

MOVE TO CUT CIVIC GRANTS IS PROTESTED

Organizations Engaged in Social Work Perturbed At Prospect

Anxiety was expressed at Monday night city council meeting by representatives of the Victorian Order of Nurses, the Y.W.C.A., Canadian National Institute for the Blind and several Catholic charitable institutions concerning the proposal made in a motion by Ald. George A. Campbell that grants to charitable institutions be reduced by 50 per cent in the aggregate.

Representatives of the city that the organizations affected would be given an opportunity to make representations when the motion was being considered, attempted to amend the motion to reduce the grant to 25 per cent. Ald. Campbell said he was willing that his motion of motion should be amended to 25 per cent.

INDULGENCE TO WORK
Ald. Campbell said that the organizations at the meeting submitted that curtailment of these grants would materially affect their social service work. He stated that with the lowering of relief costs and a general betterment of the city's financial position, the grants should be increased rather than decreased.

Mr. T. H. Field, president of the order, outlined the work done by the Victorian Order of Nurses during 1940. The order, he stated, had travelled 12,354 miles to make 7,565 visits to 1,254 patients. Of these visits 4,372 were free and 782 were for relief recipients. He said that there were 764 more visits made in 1940 than in 1939.

E. P. Wellwood, general secretary Y.W.C.A., said any curtailment in the city's grant would seriously interfere with the social service work of the Y.W.C.A. The grant from the city was earmarked for the travelling and other expenses of the social services. He said that 441 girls were found work by the Y.W.C.A. last year. That 7,008 girls were given free meals and 1,021 free lodging.

PAY FOR UTILITIES
Representing the Catholic charitable institutions in the city, Father T. Ryan said he presumed that the grants were made in use of utilities and postage. He stated that the grants in 1940 to these institutions, including the two Catholic hospitals, were made in use of utilities and postage. He stated that the grants in 1940 to these institutions, including the two Catholic hospitals, were made in use of utilities and postage.

He said that problems arising out of war conditions were placing a heavy strain on social service work and that grants should be increased rather than reduced.

Ald. Blair Peterson said he had the greatest sympathy with the objects of the institutions making the presentation to council, but that grants were made in use of utilities and postage. He stated that the grants in 1940 to these institutions, including the two Catholic hospitals, were made in use of utilities and postage.

Ald. Sidney Peterson expressed the desire to know the purpose grants made by city council would be put to use.

CHARTER AMENDMENTS
Council approved the draft of bills for charter amendments for clarifying licensing and regulating hawkers and peddlers and to provide for the shortening of the time limit of a license to 12 months from 21 to 16 days.

Approved was given leave to the bill to reduce the Calgary Power's liability of power agreement, with Aldermen Peterson and Bennett voting against the approval motion.

Hens Destroyed In Tuesday Fire: Rooms Damaged
Two flocks of a million native were fought by city apparatus in the last 24 hours.

Fourty hens were suffocated when fire destroyed a chicken house at 34 street and 127 avenue owned by M. H. Hinde, 127 34 street on 12:30 a.m. Tuesday.

BILL EXEMPTS GRAIN HOUSES TAXPAYMENTS

Farmer Is Protected From Municipal Levy On Storage Facilities

First reading was given in the legislature Monday to a bill providing for exemption from municipal taxation of additions erected last year to grain storage facilities. Hon. Lucier Maynard, K.C., minister of agriculture, introduced the bill, which was of a group of 12 to which the house gave first reading. This brings the total now before the house to 23, probably one-third of the total legislative list for the session.

The bill brought in by Mr. Maynard is applicable to elevator additions which have been constructed mainly in towns and villages. It implements a governmental assurance in complete prior to commencement of the program. The Minister stated following adjournment of the house.

Estimates as to the extent of additional storage space proposed last year indicate between 4,000,000 and 5,000,000 bushels of grain could be stored in new elevators.

BILLS INTRODUCED
Mr. Maynard introduced two more bills one of which raised an agricultural insurance fund by levying on grain and other crops. The other bill was an amendment to the Railway Act.

Hon. D. Bruce MacMillan, minister of agriculture, introduced four bills. He announced that one provided for amendment and consolidation of the Game Act, 1932. His second aim was to define the various classes of animals under municipal amendments to the Irrigation Act. He also introduced another of his bills while the other extended coverage of the Agricultural Pests Act to show recently developed or discovered in the province.

HEALTH MEASURE
Hon. Dr. W. H. Cross, minister of health and in charge of relief, introduced four new bills into the house.

One amends the Tuberculosis Act, another amends the Mental Health Act, another the Public Health Act and a fourth amends the Pharmacy Act. The Minister of Health said that the amendments to the Tuberculosis Act were brought in to amend the provisions of the Mental Health Act. He said that the amendments to the Public Health Act were brought in to amend the provisions of the Pharmacy Act.

A bill amending the Alberta Government Purchasing Agency Act was introduced by Hon. S. R. E. Low, provincial treasurer. The bill is to clarify a situation which has arisen in that the chairman of the marketing board and director of the purchasing agency are one and the same person.

Thought to have been seized by a heart attack he was found on a caboose toward the engine of an eastbound C.N.R. freight train, as it crossed the bridge over the river at 12:30 p.m. Monday. Conductor Benjamin R. Gray, 1720 124 street, died suddenly.

According to an announcement R.C.M.P. headquarters here on Tuesday, Conductor Gray was accompanied by brakeman G. H. Burns and the train was being towed by locomotive when Mr. Gray collapsed.

Const. Foster, R.C.M.P. Evansburg, was called, and he notified the coroner. The body was taken to the hospital and later placed in the morgue. The coroner is expected to hold an inquest on Monday.

SEASON OF LENT OPENS WEDNESDAY

Lent, that period in the Christian church of fasting preparatory to the festival of Easter, starts Wednesday, and an ancient religious tradition will once again be observed the world over.

Originally, the word "Lent" meant "spring," in the time of the Roman empire, the fasting period lasted but three weeks and dating from the days of Elizabeth to the 16th century women went in mourning during Lent. Appropriate services and ceremonies have been arranged for churches during Lent. The season and an event of special prominence is the combined "Wednesday evening services" to be held during Lent at Christ church and Robertson United church when the general theme is "The Seven Last Words of Christ."

These two churches have chosen the Lenten season as an example of unity between neighboring churches.

RETAIL TRADE GIVES SUPPORT TO PLAN, SAID

New features being introduced in connection with expansion of the provincial government interim program, are meeting with enthusiastic co-operation from the retail trade, according to George P. Nash, chairman of the Provincial Marketing Board.

Mr. Nash declared that for some days, retail merchants have been signing the new agreements to co-operate at an average of more than 90 per cent. It is an average considerably higher than the response to the previous approach to merchants.

"Amplified" was expressed by Mr. Nash at a statement, reportedly made at a meeting of the Calgary Board of Trade, where he stated that the retail trade was giving the large amount of support to the interim program.

The implication is that retail merchants are being forced to co-operate because they have signed up to the interim program. This is a false impression because all previous voluntary agreements have been made available in cash without charge during the transitional period, thus leaving every dealer entirely free to take any action he wishes. This has been the case since the plan was introduced and there can be no excuse for misleading statements on this point.

Heart Seizure Is Fatal Monday To C.N.R. Conductor

Thought to have been seized by a heart attack he was found on a caboose toward the engine of an eastbound C.N.R. freight train, as it crossed the bridge over the river at 12:30 p.m. Monday. Conductor Benjamin R. Gray, 1720 124 street, died suddenly.
